

HB 427 -- TRUST INSTRUMENTS

SPONSOR: Cornejo

Currently, there are certain circumstances under which a no-contest clause, in a trust instrument is unenforceable against an interested person. This bill adds the following circumstances:

- (1) Filing a motion, pleading, or other claim for relief concerning breach of trust by a trustee;
- (2) Filing a motion, pleading, or other claim for relief concerning removal of a trustee; and
- (3) Filing a motion, pleading, or other claim for relief concerning construction of any term of a trust instrument.
